The Last Homecoming of AHS

The

The Seniors chose Austria as their country. With the help of Peggy Woolley and Mark Gast as queen and king candidates, the music box brought them first place in float competition.

The little Dutch girl and boy, portrayed by Annette Severns and Steve Schipper, ride proudly on the little Dutch mill created by the Junior Class.

King Mark

Peggy and Mark were elected Queen and King during the last Homecoming of Akron High School. King and Queen are voted upon with a penny a vote election. The week before Homecoming is always filled with excitement and competition to produce the winning float. The Seniors won the float competition as well as the King and Queen. Last year's royal couple, King Bill Sellers and Queen Linda Earl, were on hand to crown the beaming King and Queen.

With the winter season in mind, the Sophomores created their own Ice-land. Sitting outside their Igloo, Denise Marsh and Gary Moyer are enjoying the cold winter weather.

The Freshmen have illustrated Switzerland's fame for their unusual and beautiful clocks. Don't you think Kay Earl and Greg Kindig make cute Swiss dolls?

The Graduating Class

Of 1974

"Our Day Will Come" was the theme of the 1974 Senior Class, but their day is only just beginning. There's a brand new world to be experienced and discovered in the years ahead.

Those giving speeches were valedictorian, Mark Harris, salutatorian, Kevin Haney, class president, Scott Slaybaugh, class members, Rene' Rager and Nila Earl and exchange student from Brazil, Vera Sena.

IN MEMORIAM
DON

(1955-1972)

He was our little manager
Our big pride and joy,
He was our little but mighty
"Manager boy."

He ran the errands,
He polished the balls,
He tried to hurry around quickly
When one of the coaches called.

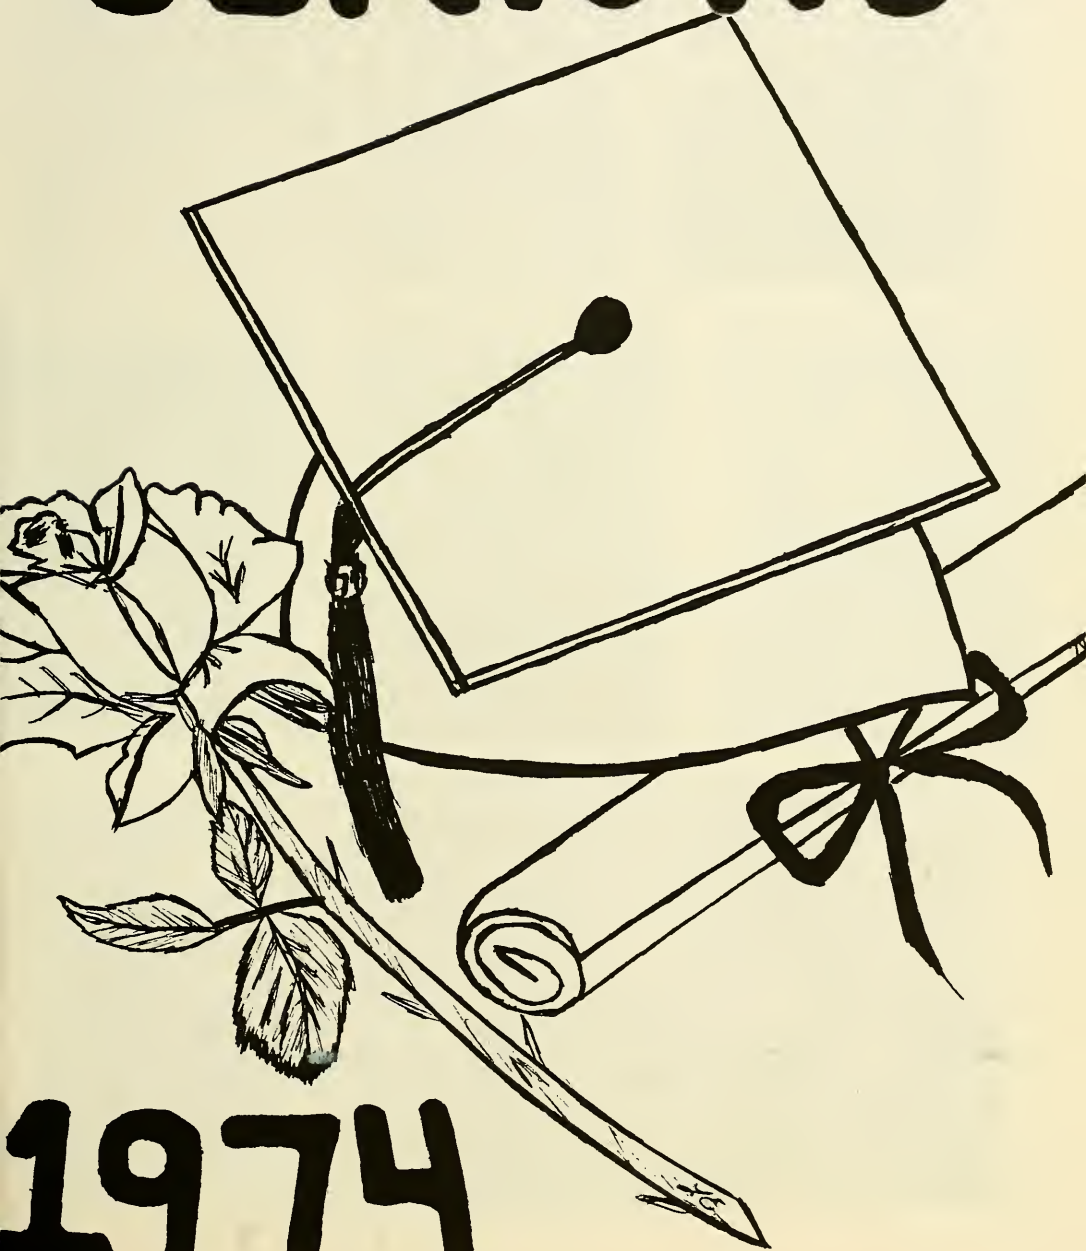

We knew he had problems
His health was not good
We heard he wouldn't be around long
But we hoped that he would.

Donnie, we loved you
Though we didn't tell you enough
How much we appreciated
All the things you did that were tough.

And when this old gymnasium
Rings loud with our cheers
Your memory will be with us
Down through many long years.

Vera Lucia Tavares de Maura Sena was Akron High School's first exchange student. She came to the States through Youth For Understanding; Glenda Mark and her parents were her host family.

Life in the United States is quite different than life in her hometown of Recife, Brazil. Vera came to the conclusion that we had an "icebox" rather than a country.

We applaud our hard-working sponsors, Mr. Cumberland, "Chief", and Mrs. Scrivnor.

Miss Baker's homeroom was always a delightful (?) twenty minutes. Time flew rapidly when there were things to do and people to see.

Most juniors feel that they need an interest outside the school to help them maintain their sanity. For some that means a job. At right is Linda Earl in her father's music shop.

Every junior class has had the "privilege" of working in the canteen. Above are three junior fellows getting ready for a basketball game. It's important to leave one's signature on any available surface so future canteen workers can appreciate their predecessors.

The Akron Flyers Worked Hard and

Long to Win the Sectional

These five energetic cheerleaders worked very hard all year to support and cheer the Flyers on to victory. Even though the team did not win all their games, the Flyers did not lose any of their loyal fans. With everybody behind them, the Flyers traveled to Warsaw to win the sectional. The following weekend took them to Elkart where they were defeated by Elkart Central, who later became the Regional Champs.

On the oppoiste page are some of the stars on the team in action. The starting five were always quick to give credit to all the team members, rather than taking all the glory themselves.

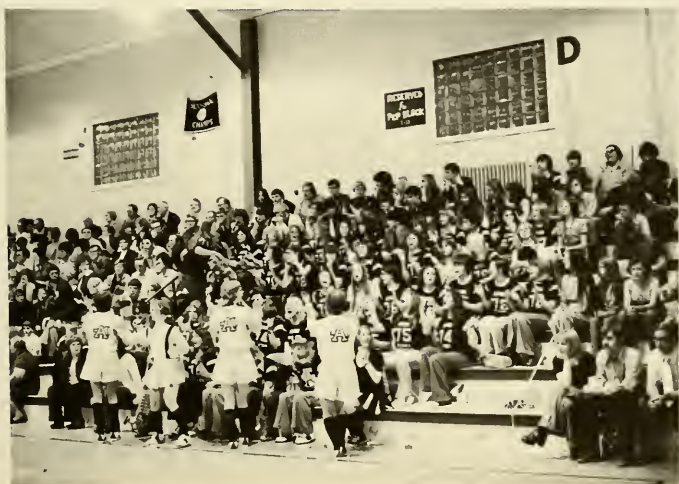

Mr. Bob DuBois coaches the B-Team. Here during a game, he gives instructions and encouragement. His green towel always brings him good luck.

These vivacious B-Team cheerleaders add a lot of spirit and drive to the team. They are bottom to top: Kathy Haney, Adele Cumberland, Tammy Smalley, and Tina May. Below, they spark enthusiasm in the pep block.

The freshmen cheerleaders top to bottom are: Teresa Sellers, Sherrie Miller, Kay Earl, Darla Geiger, and Lynn Hively.

Intramural Basketball

"Hoosier Hysteria" -- Basketball -- is strong all across the state of Indiana. Akron High School is no exception. Probably everybody has longed to perform on the basketball court, Intramural basketball allows all fellows to get involved with the sport. On this page are several of the teams. On the next page are some of the amateurs displaying their talents.

Track

back are: Greg Kindig, Greg Bussard, John Lash, Bruce Tutorow, Scott Slaybaugh, Hal Hoffman, Todd Sheetz, Steve Swick, and Mr. Creighton, coach.

coach, Kathy Haney, Peggy Woolley, Sharlene Bose, Jeff Slone, Wes Smith, Greg Kindig, Del Rager, and Doug Kelly.

Coach Fites Leads Off Sports Season; Coach Roy Concludes the Year

Coach Tom Roy headed both the Akron and Mentone baseball teams. Akron High School has long been famous for a strong basketball team. Coach Roy wanted to make the baseball team just as strong. He made much headway this year. Kim Petrosky came through with a grand slam homerun during one of Akron's games.

Cross Country

The cross country team include: Ron Newlin, Greg Bussard, Mitch Scott, Mike Coughenour, and Doug Gast. Standing are: Mr. Fites, coach, Don Ramsey, Mark Gast, Scott Slaybaugh, Ron Dittman, and Matt Gast.

Fifth row: W. Reed, J. Shambaugh, W. Stratton, P. Luckenbill, R. Hileman, M. Norman, K. Petrosky, V. Kline, J. Stinson, and T. Bogan-wright.

To each of the pep club members and especially to each of the cheerleaders Mrs. Juna Graham has become a very special person and friend. Practically all of her life she has been involved with sports. She herself was a cheerleader. Each of her four daughters were cheerleaders and her husband served as a coach for several years.

Her willingness to listen to any problems, her strong, stable advice and her easy smiles are just a few of her many assets.

The background of the entire page is a high-contrast, black and white image of a city skyline. The image is heavily stylized, with vertical lines and sharp angles representing buildings. A large, white, abstract shape, resembling a stylized 'L' or a large 'C', is overlaid on the left side of the image. The word 'ORGANIZATIONS' is printed in a bold, black, sans-serif font, centered horizontally across the middle of the page.

Practice Hard to Develop Their Skills

The seventh grade cheerleaders are top to bottom: Connie Hendricks, Debbie Zimmerman, Suzanne French, Terri Walgamuth, Lori Smalley, Krista Sellers, Barb Pratt, and Gary Gearhart.

The seventh and eighth grade basketball team members gained some valuable experience as they played throughout the season. Although neither team had a winning season, the eighth graders did win over Wakarusa in the County Tournament which was held at Syracuse.

The players showed their dedication by being at 6:30 practices. Randy Shafer, a seventh grade player, said that they kept on trying and that they learned to play together as a team.

The eighth grade cheerleaders are top to bottom: Patti Gearhart, Sheila Cumberland, Teresa Petrosky, and Debbie Stanton.

Junior High Track

GARRY WRIGHT

J. T.

This page is dedicated to those people who have made this yearbook a success. To Miss Baker, our sponsor, we offer a big thank you and sincere wishes of good luck in her future. I want to thank the entire annual staff for their time and effort in compiling this book of memories. We also wish to thank Cox Studio and Terry Klondaris for their efficient service.

This was the last year for Akron High School. The year was filled with many sentimental moments. Among the outstanding moments were the Seniors winning the king, queen and the competitions at Homecoming. "Flyer Power" won the sectional! Scott and Rene' will be remembered as the immortal Henry Higgins and Eliza Doolittle. The prom and graduation were the grand finale.

Well, enough of reminiscing. The picture shows that the sun is shining and is welcoming a new day. 1974 is behind us; ahead lies a new high school and a new school year.
